HEADTEACHER

Required September 2022

Group 2 School Leadership Range ISR L14 – L21 £58,135 - £69,031

The pupils, staff and Governors of St. Mark's Catholic Primary School are seeking to appoint an inspirational, creative and highly motivated Catholic Headteacher to lead our school and move it to the next stage of its aspirational journey.

We wish to appoint :

- a practising Catholic who will celebrate, support and develop our school's ethos.
- someone who has the ability to put the needs of the children first, ensuring that they continue to be excited about all aspects of their learning journey whilst developing their individual talents to the full.
- a headteacher with a clear vision for taking our school forward from strength to strength.
- a leader who will challenge and empower staff to be the best they can be whilst being committed to their own professional development.
- someone with a strong, proven track record of raising standards across the key stages.
- a person with excellent interpersonal skills, a positive attitude, a good listener and very approachable.
- an excellent communicator and commits to working closely in partnership with parents, Governors, the Parish, the Archdiocese, the Local Authority and the wider community.

We offer the successful candidate :

- happy, enthusiastic children who are eager to learn and a pleasure to teach.
- a friendly, dedicated and hard-working team.
- a caring, supportive and understanding governing body.
- a commitment to your wellbeing and professional development.

We strongly encourage applicants to visit the school. Please contact our Business Manager, Gill Holt on 0151 288 8910 to arrange a visit with our Deputy Headteacher, Lisa Ferguson.

How to apply

The CES application form and information pack can be downloaded online from our school website www.stmarkshalewood.org.uk and returned to Elizabeth Connolly, Clerk to Governors via email to elizabeth.connolly@stmarkshalewood.org.uk
